

Casual Bearer Job Description

- Do you want to work for a local family run business with a passion for delivering high standards?
 - Are you looking for a job that is rewarding?
- Do you think you have the ability and skills to help families during a difficult time?
 - Are you committed to providing good client care?

A B Walker, a long-established family owned, and controlled Funeral Directors has vacancies for Casual Bearers based at their Reading Office.

This vacancy requires a person of smart appearance with good communication skills as they will be liaising with bereaved families and funeral officiants.

General duties include pall bearing and chauffeur duties.

This role would be suited to someone with a background in care, hospital work or manual handling; however this experience is not a mandatory requirement.

Our service must always be first class and the care and consideration of our customers' needs and requirements is of the utmost importance. We therefore require a person with a positive attitude, with plenty of initiative to learn the procedures and quickly become a valuable member of a busy working team.

The applicant must hold a clean, manual driving licence.

A uniform and suit are provided.

Hours of work: Between 8.30am - 5.30pm
