A.B. WALKER TERMS OF BUSINESS

We request full payment in advance for Unattended type funerals and international repatriation. For attended funerals we request a deposit of 50% of funeral director's charges and 100% of all third party fees 4 days ahead of the funeral date. Final invoices to be settled within 28 days of date of invoice. A.B. Walker reserve the right to charge 2% above Bank of England base lending rate on overdue amounts.

Please see our full Terms and Conditions for more details.

OWNERSHIP AND DECLARATION OF INTERESTS

A.B. Walker has proudly remained family owned since its inception in 1826. It was incorporated in 1953 and is currently owned by Matthew Walker and Julian Walker.

The Walker family also separately own and operate Memory Giving, an online donation management platform in support of charitable giving and maximising the recovery of Gift Aid on behalf of charities. Memory Giving is used by funeral directors throughout the UK.

The company may from time to time make donations to various good causes in the local area. These donations will be in some form of sponsorship, and we do not expect or require any recommendation for our support. Any donations amounting to more than £250 in any given year can be obtained from our office by request. These donations are not from collections at funeral services.
